HAMLET HOUSE,

HAMMERSMITH.

June 26. 77

Dear Mr. Garrison,

I don't want to add a feather weight to your father's labors but if you have to go anywhere I will make it as easy to come to us

& all we can offer is quiet trees, birds & a warm welcome You can take a ticket at Blackfriars Station at 11.35
& reach Shaftesbury Road Station a little after 12.
We will meet you & bring you to our home in

as anywhere else.
You can digest my proposition & decide without mentioning
it to your father.
We want to see him & would like to have our children see their Country's Hero. Mrs. Smalley is eager to see him.
This is all selfish

I minute Lunch at 1 o.c.
& I will drive you to Memorial Hall, Farmington Street in time for 3 o.c.

Yours cordially

Ellen D. Conway
